COLONEL BRADLEY keeps reiterating that he would leave the Republican party if it should declare for free silver. Well, party ties are not considered very binding by the g. o. p. boss. He quit the Democrats simply because they refused to give him office.

Coming Amusement.

The coming comedienne Cora Van Tassel and an excellent company of players including Mr. Wm. Stuart, Frank Allen, Chas Maynard, May Nibley Drew, the Rocky Mountain string band and Sand Hill quartette will present Scott Marble's latest and best play "Tennessee's Pardner" at the opera house Monday evening Sept. 23 with a full orchestra and new and beautiful scenery. The Philadelphia Record says:

"Tennessee's Pardner" a comedy drama of Western life with a well developed vein of homely sentiment, some strong situations of the melo-dramatic order, bright comedy and a number of specialties, sufficed to please a large audience at the National Theatre last evening. Cora Van Tassel, a pleasing actress, with a thorough command of dialect, made a decidedly favorable impression as a western waif of the type so cleverly drawn by Bret Harte. She was given excellent support by William Stuart, whose work in leading juvenile roles with Robert Mancell will be pleasantly remembered. Messrs. Ducrow, Craig and Pendleton also did much to carry the performance through. The play is well put together, and abounds with quaint characters, which were almost invariably well sustained.

Wedded at Cincinnati

The Cincinnati Post says: "The principals in a romantic marriage were Charles Richardson, of 21 Eastbourne Terrace, this city, and Miss Ola Wheeler, the daughter of John Wheeler, a wealthy merchant of Maysville, Ky."

"The two young people have long been attached to each other. A few days ago Richardson went to Maysville, and Wednesday afternoon brought the Kentucky girl to Cincinnati, after first having the marriage ceremony performed in Newport. Charles is a brother-in-law of John Doyle, of the Probate Court."

St. Lawrence Sunk.

The White Collar steamer St. Lawrence went down Wednesday night in fifteen feet of water at Fulton, Cincinnati. Captain William Kirker and Watchman Henry Boyce were in charge of the boat. The boat had been plying the Ohio for sixteen years, but passed her last inspection. The wind disarranged her spars and she drifted on the wrecked hulk of the Morgan and her hull was run through. The boat was for a long time the Cincinnati and Maysville packet.

COLORED TEACHERS.

The Mason County Institute Now in Session—What Was Done Yesterday.

Pursuant to the call of Superintendent Blatterman, the teachers of Mason County assembled at 9:25 in the building of the colored public schools, this city, with Mr. G. W. Blatterman presiding, Mr. James R. Spurgeon Secretary, and Miss Alice Paxton organist.

The exercises were opened with religious service and an address by Superintendent Blatterman.

Upon the calling of the roll the following teachers answered to their names: C. N. Moore, Murphysville; J. M. Bowles, Mayslick; Mrs. S. W. Stevens, Washington; Miss Martha Bookram, Washington; V. Clinton, Lewisburg; Robert Davis, Lewisburg; Miss Ida M. Marshall, Orangeburg; Misses Mary Britton, Mary E. Jackson, Alice Paxton and Julia S. Young, Maysville; Miss Florence Taylor, Moransburg; Miss Essie Warner, Warner; E. F. Carwell, Dover; James Cason and Miss Mary Bell, Germantown; Miss L. R. Clemens, Mayslick; James R. Spurgeon, Maysville; Mrs. James R. Spurgeon, Tressville; Miss Mary K. Henderson, Maysville; Miss Luella B. Stewart, Chester; Miss Hattie Lee, Maysville; Miss Maggie Robinson, Helena.

After the registration of the teachers there was an intermission to await the arrival of the Institute Conductor, Prof. J. H. Jackson, of Frankfort State Normal. At 10:30 Prof. Jackson having arrived Superintendent G. W. Blatterman with appropriate remarks presented him to the assembly. After being introduced, Prof. Jackson in reply addressed the teachers on the subject of "How to Make the Greatest Success as Teachers." He maintained that all could not necessarily teach. Teaching being an art was best attained in the normal institutes and training scholars. That the greatest good might be attained one must acquire the skill of imparting. The pupil must be taught how to learn and how to use acquired knowledge.

During the day's session the following subjects were presented and discussed by the Superintendent, Instructor and teachers in general: school organization, teachers' duties, methods of teaching reading, supplementary reading, geography, language, spelling and grammar. The institute continues its session to-day and visitors are cordially invited to attend.

To-night at 8 o'clock in Scott Chapel M. E. Church Prof. Jackson will deliver an address to the public on his work for State Normal School at Frankfort. As this institution is the only one of higher education provided by the State Legislature for the colored citizens of the Commonwealth the public will do well to attend to-night and learn what is being accomplished.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at J. James Wood's drug store.

Food
—But No Appetite

is a worse fix than "appetite but no food." Can you eat a meal with relish, or can't you? If you can't your stomach probably needs looking after, and this is the way to look after it: Take a tablespoonful of in a little water, three times a day for a week and you'll be surprised how well you'll feel, and how hungry you'll be, and—but isn't this enough?

Brown's Iron Bitters is a medicine for all ages—children like it, and old persons nearly always need it.

It is pleasant to take and will not stain the teeth nor cause constipation. See the crossed red lines on the wrapper.

THE REDS WON.

And They Knocked Rieman Out of the Box, Too.

A Pretty Game After First Inning.
McGann and Cox the Star Players.

The Cincinnati's have at last succeeded in defeating the Maysvilles.

And yet that hardly tells the tale in its true light. The Maysvilles really presented the Reds with the game yesterday.

Our boys gave an exhibition of "rocky" ball in the opening inning. Some of them seemed to have a bad case of "stage fright," and every infielder made an error before their opponents were retired. Those errors coupled with six or seven hits gave the Reds nine runs. This was enough to discourage any team, but the Maysvilles soon showed that they are not quitters. Foreman, one of the Reds' star pitchers, was in the box, and the boys didn't do a thing to him. Johnson, Kehoe and Sutherland each got a two-bagger, Burke a three-bagger, and Rieman a single. These, with a base on balls to Van Winkle, gave the Maysvilles five runs in the first, and revived the hopes of the crowd.

After the first, the Maysvilles got together and played as fine ball as was ever seen. Only one error was made during the remaining innings, and with anything like good work in the box, the boys would have won, and taken three straights from the Reds.

Against the protest of the Maysville crowd, the management put Rieman in to pitch. He hadn't treated the team right since the second victory over the Reds, and the crowd preferred any one else to him. After the first, he pitched very nicely for four innings, and then he seemed to let down completely. Three bases on balls and nine hits gave the Reds eight runs in the sixth and seventh, and all hope was gone.

These two innings settled Mr. Rieman, and Dick Smith, of Huntington, finished the game. He soon showed the Reds that he could put 'em over. Only seven men faced him in the two innings, and only one hit was made off of his delivery.

With Smith in the box from the first, many believe Maysville would have won without any trouble.

Captain McGann played center field, and made two of the greatest catches ever seen on a diamond. The first was a left-handed catch of a long fly from Parrot in the fourth and the next was a great running catch of a long fly from Gray in the fifth. They were great sensational plays and set the crowd wild.

Cox also played a fine game in left as he always does, and made one great running catch that was almost as difficult as the one McGann made.

The management wanted Wadsworth to play right field, but Henry declined, and Burke of the Shamrocks was secured. Henry was ready to play his regular position in center.

THE Ohio River Railroad Company has established a rule that passengers who fail to purchase a ticket will be charged ten cents extra in addition to the regular fare, and the matter was given a test this week at Huntington. Ben Wilson, a citizen of Ceredo, a town six miles west, alleges that he could not purchase a ticket one night a week ago and he refused to put up the extra dime, and the conductor ejected him from the cars. He brought a damage suit against the company, and was given a judgment for one hundred dollars. The case will be carried up and a test made of it in the upper courts.

SALE will be made upon the following terms:

On it there are five walled pools of never failing stock water, a good cistern and deep well; an orchard of select fruit. The land is naturally good, and is now in fine condition for cultivation.

The Old Union and Haun's Mill creek runs through the farm, leaving upon the south side about 47 acres, and upon the north side 129 acres and a fraction. These two portions of the farm will be offered first separately, and then as a whole, and the highest bid will be accepted. The sale will take place at 11 o'clock a.m.
